autobiography of death is a phrase that conjures profound reflections on the inevitable journey every living being must undertake. It invites us to explore death not merely as an end but as a narrative—a story woven into the fabric of life itself. Throughout history, cultures, philosophies, and art have attempted to personify, understand, and even narrate the concept of death, turning it into an autobiographical entity with its own story to tell. In this article, we delve into the metaphorical and philosophical dimensions of the "autobiography of death," examining how death is portrayed across different contexts, its symbolic significance, and what it reveals about human existence.
